

THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF SOCIAL WORKERS CONGRATULATES

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People

The National Association of Social Workers is pleased to congratulate you on the 100th anniversary of the founding of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and to acknowledge your century of successful efforts fighting discrimination and obtaining legal equality for all citizens. As African Americans struggled to cope with violence and segregation in the early 1900s, social workers were proud to stand with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at its birth and throughout the historic and strategic gains of the 20th Century.

As you move into your second century, we will remain a partner in fulfilling your mission “to ensure the political, educational, social, and economic equality of rights of all persons and to eliminate racial hatred and racial discrimination.”
