

THANK YOU FOR YOUR TECHNOLOGY COMMENTS

NASW and the Task Force for Technology Standards in Social Work Practice would like to thank NASW members and the public for their comments on the “Draft Technology Standards in Social Work Practice” during the public comment period of June 17 – July 20, 2016. Your helpful comments were valuable and are being considered in the revision process of the draft technology standards. As a result of your comments, NASW is developing a sub task force for technology standards to review the forthcoming revised standards to ensure the document incorporates the best practices for the social work community. NASW is seeking members who have extensive technical expertise and experience using technology in social work practice. If you are interested in being considered as a member of this sub task force, please submit a narrative of your professional social work experience and expertise in technology to the following email address: mcoleman@naswdc.org. Information must be submitted no later than Friday, September 2, 2016. Thank you.
