CODES FOR PRACTICE DEMOGRAPHICS 24
INTRODUCTION

Created by the National Association of Social Workers (NASW), with the support of military, Veteran, and civilian social workers, this is the premier national credential in social work practice with Service Members, Veterans, and their families. The social work profession has developed a well-established body of knowledge that informs social work practice with Service Members, Veterans, and their families, as well as the set of complex skills that are required of social workers in this field of practice.

DEFINITION OF SOCIAL WORK WITH SERVICE MEMBERS, VETERANS, AND THEIR FAMILIES

The White House Joining Forces Initiative (2011) has noted that “the U.S. military recruits and retains the highest-caliber volunteers to contribute to the Nation’s defense and security.” Service Members, Veterans, and their families sacrifice much and have earned respect and the resources necessary to help them live productive and healthy lives. They have great strengths, including resilience, perseverance, courage, and critical problem-solving skills, yet they may also face significant challenges.

Approximately 2.2 million Service Members make up America’s all-volunteer force in the Active, National Guard, and Reserve components, representing less than one percent of all Americans (White House Joining Forces Initiative, 2011). Many social workers, regardless of primary practice area, will work with clients who do, or have, served in the military and/or with their family members including spouses, partners, children, and parents of the Service Member or Veteran.

The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) established the first social work program in the Veterans Bureau in 1926 and is now the largest employer of master’s-level social workers in the nation. The VA is also affiliated with over 180 graduate schools of social work and operates the largest and most comprehensive clinical training program for social work students in the United States. Social workers have been a part of the U.S. military since 1945, providing high quality care to Service Members at home and on the front lines. Social workers can also be found as providers under TRICARE, the health care program for uniformed Service Members, their families, and survivors of deceased Service Members. Additionally, many more social workers provide direct and indirect services to this population through a wide variety of contractual services.

Social work services with Service Members, Veterans, and their families include but are not limited to mental and behavioral health services, health services, social supports, case management, care coordination, administration, and advocacy. Services are provided at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels in a wide range of public and private settings—community-based, school, government, health, and mental health organizations. Services may be provided to Service Members in all branches and Veterans from all eras and conflicts, as well as to their family members and loved ones. In carrying out their roles and functions in this specialized arena, social workers adhere to the NASW Code of Ethics, meet NASW Standards for Social Work Practice for Practice with Service Members, Veterans, and Their Families and comply with NASW Standards for Cultural Competence.

CORE FUNCTIONS

- Maintaining appropriate boundaries and employing strategies of ethical reasoning, and professional comportment consistent with The NASW Code of Ethics® in an environment that may present complex policy and value conflicts, and establishing mutually respectful professional relationships with Service Members, Veterans, and their families throughout the course of providing culturally competent social work services
- Identifying the complexities of navigating military culture with the client's personal cultural identities as these affect micro, mezzo and macro levels of service delivery to Service Members, Veterans, and their families
- Understanding the unique needs of special populations such as caregivers, individuals with disabilities, those who are aging, those who are homeless, those who are involved with the criminal justice system, women, and lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender persons when engaging in service with Service Members, Veterans, and their families
- Maintaining current knowledge of basic eligibility requirements for available government programs, community resources, and other forms of support and assistance available to Service Members, Veterans, and their families
- Identifying and facilitating client access to essential services and resources to be offered as part of an evolving comprehensive plan in accordance with the mission and wishes of Service Members, Veterans, and their families
- Assuming personal responsibility for and actively seeking supervision, continuing education, training, and practice opportunities to continually enhance knowledge of social work practice with Service Members, Veterans, and their families
- Advocating for legislative, regulatory, and organizational policies and procedures that ensure access to quality care for all Service Members, Veterans, and their families
- Informing and educating stakeholders on military culture and the role of social workers in addressing existing and potential challenges and stigma often confronted by Service Members, Veterans, and their families
Engaging in on-going supervision, continuing education, training, and practice opportunities to enhance knowledge of social work practice with Service Members, Veterans, and their families

Understanding the bio-psychosocial-spiritual aspects of war, armed conflict, and the phases of deployment and reintegration as it impacts Service Members, Veterans, and their families

Maintaining expertise in the bio-psychosocial-spiritual aspects of the identified challenges across life phase transitions facing Service Members, Veterans, and their families

Assessing and enhancing the strengths and resiliency of Service Members, Veterans, and their families

Core knowledge and skills are reflected in the competency assessment statements completed by supervisors and social work colleagues as part of this application.

BENEFITS FOR CREDENTIAL HOLDERS

In conjunction with the internal validation of professional competency, credential holders have found additional benefits:

- As a member of the Institute for Credentialing Excellence, NASW credentials indicate that you have met national standards of social work practice
- NASW credentials are verification that you have a renewable commitment to excellence and expertise in the practice of social work with Service Members, Veterans, and their families
- NASW credentials indicate advanced practitioners to the public
- NASW credentials bring leadership opportunities and recognition by peers and other health care professionals
- Some employers provide incentives to employees who choose to obtain and maintain NASW credentials

SUPERVISION AND EXPERTISE

Applicant must be a social worker who confirms the basic knowledge requirements of the profession. NASW credentials require the rating of performance factors by at least one social work supervisor with significant experience working with military Service Members, Veterans, and their families, and two other social work colleagues, to determine the level of knowledge to practice and effectiveness of performance.

Supervision must be provided by a licensed Master's or Doctoral level social worker for a minimum of two years and should occur at a rate of not less than one (1) hour of supervision for every 30 hours of direct service provision.

Exception: Alternate supervision from a practitioner at the Master's or Doctoral level licensed under a different discipline may be accepted only under the following circumstances:

- Supervision hours were earned during an overseas deployment or assignment (DoD or VA only)
- The applicant provides professional services in a Health Resources Services Administration (HRSA) defined health professional shortage area

Required forms are included with the application.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR CREDENTIAL APPLICANTS

Education:

A Bachelor's degree in social work from a CSWE-accredited college or university program is required. A database of CSWE-accredited programs can be found at cswe.org/Accreditation/Accredited-Programs.aspx. Educational institutions that are in candidacy are not accepted. The degree must be in social work; related degrees are not eligible.

Experience:

Applicants must have completed the equivalent of a minimum of two (2) full-time years of supervised professional social work practice with military Service Members, Veterans, and their families. Qualifying employment experience must be paid and amount to at least 3,000 hours. Appropriate work settings include a Department of Defense (DoD) or Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) setting; or with an agency or organization officially affiliated with DoD or the VA; or with an agency, practice, or organization that provides services to Service Members, Veterans, and/or their families.

This experience must have occurred within five (5) years preceding submission of the application.

Exception: If the applicant otherwise meets the experience requirements but exceeds the five (5) year condition, then they must submit verification of an additional fifteen (15) continuing education credits (beyond the 20 credit requirement for this credential) obtained within the past two (2) years that specifically address or reflect contemporary knowledge of current social issues, interventions, resources, research, or evidence-based practices essential to working with Service Members, Veterans, and their families.

If you are uncertain about experience and supervision requirements, please contact the NASW Credentialing Center at 800.638.8799 x447 or credentialing@naswdc.org.
PROFESSIONAL LICENSURE

Applicant must have a current and unrestricted license to practice social work at the BSW level. The title of this license varies by state, but generally is called a “Licensed Social Worker.” Licensee must be degreed as a social worker. Other disciplines licensed as social workers as allowable in some jurisdictions cannot qualify for social work credentials.

Exception: Applicants who reside in states that do not license at the BSW level may still qualify with one (1) additional year of professional experience and ten (10) additional continuing education credits beyond the stated requirements.

SPECIALIZED KNOWLEDGE/CONTINUING EDUCATION

Qualified candidates must show evidence of a minimum of twenty (20) hours of continuing education, ten (10) of which must be directly relevant to assessment and intervention with military Service Members, Veterans, and their families. Relevant training must have occurred within the two (2) years immediately prior to the date of application.

Proof of specialized knowledge and training may include:
- Copies of continuing education certificates
- Employer human resources generated listings of in-service/community-based trainings
- Documentation of applicant presentations and/or participation in professional activities in research, education, or policy initiatives

Professional behavior and socialization is essential for excellence in social work practice. Regardless of NASW membership status, applicants are required to affirm commitment to the following:
- NASW Standards for Social Work Practice with Service Members, Veterans, and Their Families
- NASW Standards for Continuing Professional Education
- NASW Code of Ethics

APPLICATION FEES

The initial application fee for NASW members is $140. The initial application fee for non-members is $350. Renewal is required every two (2) years. Renewal applications and applicable fees are available online at www.socialworkers.org/credentials/default.asp.

Payment must be included with the application and should be made to “NASW Credentialing Center.” Payments may be made by check, money order, American Express, NASW Visa, or other Visa/MasterCard credit cards.

Refund Policy: There are no refunds for application processing.

CERTIFICATES

Applicants who successfully meet all criteria will receive an approval letter and certificate suitable for framing. Upon successful renewal, certificate holders will receive a seal updating the certification for each renewal period. Replacement certificates can be reissued for a small fee.

MAINTAINING THE CREDENTIAL

NASW professional credentials must be renewed biennially on the anniversary date of certification. Ultimately, it is the responsibility of the individual professional social worker to maintain active certification for all credentials issued.

You will be required to:
- Report at least twenty (20) hours of continuing education, ten (10) of which must specifically address or reflect contemporary knowledge of current social issues, interventions, resources, research, or evidence-based practices essential to working with Service Members, Veterans, and their families
- Provide a current license number to practice social work at the BSW level, if applicable
- Submit the established renewal fee

Although renewal requires a reporting process, be aware that random audits do occur. If selected, you will be required to submit copies of your continuing education certificates.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Why did NASW create a credential in social work practice with Service Members, Veterans, and their families?

While there have been certificates and program tracks in schools of social work focusing on social work practice with Service Members, Veterans, and their families, there has yet to be a nationally recognized credential in this field. Social workers working with Service Members, Veterans, and their families deserve recognition for their unique skills and abilities. NASW created this credential to provide a high quality standard that validates the efforts of those social workers.

Since I am already licensed in my state, do I need to get the credential?

NASW administered certifications and credentials are not a substitute for any certification or license required by the state or your employer. In fact, NASW advanced certifications and credentials generally require a current license in good standing as part of the eligibility criteria. NASW credentials are voluntary certifications and evidence of professional achievement of established national standards in a given specialty area. While the social work license indicates that you have met state regulatory requirements designed to protect the public, professional credentials identify specialization and competency in a specific practice arena.

Since a license is required for the credential, and a transcript is required for my state license, why do I have to send an original transcript? Are there any exceptions?

Holding a social work license is not evidence that you have a BSW from an accredited program. Some states have “grand parented in” individuals who do not have a social work degree but who have other (non-social work) degrees.

NASW provides a primary verification service to employers and third-party payer systems regarding membership status and credentials in good standing. Part of that responsibility includes a process that involves our having obtained and reviewed original documentation.

Exception: If you currently have a NASW credential in good standing earned after 1989, you do not need to resubmit an official transcript. NASW will already have a copy of your transcript on file. Please indicate this on the Application Form on page seven (7).

Do/did not have a social work supervisor; can I use another supervisor I had?

No. In consultation with the expert panel that devised the MVF-SW credential, we determined that social work supervision is essential for the purpose of appropriate professional development, socialization, facilitating learning, and navigating the complexities of the social work role with military Service Members, Veterans, and their families.

The application mentions compliance with NASW Standards for Continuing Education recommending 48 hours of continuing education over a two-year period. Elsewhere it states that 20 hours is required to apply and renew. Which is correct?

They are both correct. The NASW Standards recommend social workers complete 48 hours of continuing education over a two-year period. However, for the purposes of certification, we require evidence that twenty (20) of those hours are completed, ten (10) of which are specific to your social work practice with military service members, veterans, and their families.
How long does it take before I know my certification status?
The entire process may take up to six (6) weeks. Problems in one of the multiple steps in the review process can affect this timeline. Most often delays occur for the following reasons:
- Incomplete application materials
- Awaiting official transcript from the university
- New or renewing member status has not been finalized to determine application fee

When your application is reviewed, NASW makes every effort to notify you if there is missing or disqualifying information so that the situation can be corrected. It is important that you respond to requests for information within ten (10) business days to negotiate corrective measures. Be aware that failure to respond to requests for information or failure to provide the Credentialing Center with any additional requested materials within one month will result in an “ineligible” determination. There are no refunds for incomplete applications.

I understand that renewal is required every two years. Does that mean I have to repeat the entire process and payment?
No. The renewal application and applicable fees can be found online at www.socialworkers.org. Please be aware that NASW sends renewal reminders only through electronic communications. It is important that you ensure that any changes to your email are reported through NASW Member Services.

AFFIRMATION OF COMPLIANCE WITH NASW STANDARDS FOR SOCIAL WORK WITH SERVICE MEMBERS, VETERANS, AND THEIR FAMILIES

☑ Standard 1. Ethics and Values. When working with Service Members, Veterans, and their families in any capacity, social workers shall function in accordance with ethical principles and standards of the profession as articulated in the NASW 2008 Code of Ethics.

☑ Standard 2. Qualifications. Social workers who work with Service Members, Veterans, and their families shall meet the provisions for professional practice set by NASW and the individual social worker’s state, jurisdiction, or institution. They shall possess knowledge and understanding basic to the social work profession as well as to their employer.

☑ Standard 3. Knowledge. Social workers who work with Service Members, Veterans, and their families shall demonstrate a working knowledge of relevant theories and essential practice behaviors. All professional social workers, regardless of practice focus or level, should have a basic understanding of the opportunities and challenges facing this population and how, as a profession, we can support and respond to the population in an effective and meaningful way.

☑ Standard 4. Assessment. Social workers who work with Service Members, Veterans, and their families shall use appropriate theoretically and evidence-based practice models, skills, and interventions that reflect their understanding of the opportunities and challenges facing this population. The depth and breadth of the assessment shall depend on the qualifications of the social work provider.

☑ Standard 5. Intervention and Treatment Planning. Social workers shall incorporate assessments in developing and implementing intervention and treatment plans that best serve the client’s and/or family’s needs on both an individual and an organizational basis.

☑ Standard 6. Practice and Program Evaluation and Improvement. Social workers working with Service Members, Veterans, and their families shall be a part of an ongoing, formal evaluation of their practice to assess quality and appropriateness of services, to improve practice, and to ensure competence.

☑ Standard 7. Professional Development. Social workers who work with Service Members, Veterans, and their families shall assume personal responsibility for their continued professional development in accordance with the NASW Standards for Continuing Professional Education (NASW, 2002) and state requirements. The system in which social workers work with this population are complex and subject to change, and therefore it is crucial that social workers remain current in both theoretical, research, and practical knowledge of the populations and systems in which they work and the general network of psychosocial, health, and mental and behavioral health services.

☑ Standard 8. Supervision, Leadership, Education, and Training. Social workers with expertise in working with Service Members, Veterans, and their families have a responsibility to provide leadership for educational, supervisory, administrative, and research efforts with individuals, groups, and organizations that both directly and indirectly influence this population.

☑ Standard 9. Documentation. Social workers shall maintain records or documentation of social work services with Service Members, Veterans, and their families that reflect pertinent information for assessment and treatment of clients and client systems, social work involvement and outcomes with and for clients, and legislative and administrative regulations and policies in accordance with care goals.

☑ Standard 10. Interdisciplinary Leadership and Collaboration.
