

HOW NASW ADVOCATES TODAY

NASW speaks on behalf of its 110,000 members and 715,000 Social Workers in the United States.

National office leads on federal policy
55 Chapters advocate their state and local policies.

ISSUES

NASW Advocates For:

Social workers on workforce issues AND on behalf of clients, communities, and society on social justice issues

WORKFORCE ISSUES

Compensation
License Portability
Reimbursement Rates
Scope of Practice
Student Loan Debt Relief
Telehealth Services
Workplace Violence
and many more

SOCIAL JUSTICE ISSUES

Climate Change
Elder Care
Ending Racism
Health Equity
Human Rights
Immigration
Homelessness & Poverty

ACTIONS

NASW employs a variety of tactics to be heard.

Meets with members of both Chambers of Congress, Federal agencies and the administration

Crafts responses during public comment periods

Joins coalitions with other organizations and provides support on issues they face

Supports and contributes to political campaigns through NASW-PACE

HOW TO GET INVOLVED

Voices

Call or visit lawmakers

Funding

NASW members can contribute to NASW-PACE

Education

Learn about all sides of critical issues

